

S6 Figure. Predominant reasons cited for not consenting to participate in the study, over the course of the study

Note: This data was restricted to surveys where eligible potential participants declined informed consent. Scale for the percent of potential participants who did not consent to participate in the study who cited each reason for declining participation differs for each plot.